A few shortcuts to Search for Diagnosis Codes

The shortcut "icd9." returns the diagnoses that match an ICD-9 diagnosis code.

1. Type "icd9." before entering an ICD-9 diagnosis code. For example, enter "icd9.250.00" and press ENTER.
2. In the Database Matches window, select the appropriate related diagnosis.
3. Click Accept.

!Database Matches window for ICD-9 codes

The shortcut "icd10." returns the diagnoses that match an ICD-10 diagnosis code.

1. Type "icd10." before entering an ICD-10 diagnosis code. For example, enter "icd10.e11.9" and press ENTER.
2. In the Database Matches window, select the appropriate related diagnosis.
3. Click Accept.

!Database Matches window for ICD-10 codes